MEMORANDOM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Fiscal 71/72 R&D Budget Revisions

The possible changes in the contract R&D budget at this time are limited to the definition of the allowances to be made in the personnel compensation aspect. Present thinking is that the personnel compensation aspect may be reduced by about which would cause the contract R&D budget to be increased to however, no firm decision on this subject has been made at this point. b. FI-72 R&D Total Budget This represents a reduction of over our former subject this had been taken from the EOI listing thus reducing it to this figure making to allowance for EOI and the total contract R&D budget at the present time. Mr. advised me that we should anticipate additional fluctuations in this figure, but he did not believe they would be of major perportion.
